

Urban Planning & Design

Shaping places, building communities, preserving environments

Tuesday
November 18, 2008
6–7:15 p.m.
Eliot 314

- Land use planning
- Green building and design
- Landscape architecture
- Transportation policy and planning
- Sustainable communities

PANELISTS

Ethan Seltzer, Ph.D., city and regional planning
Professor of Urban Studies and Planning and Director, School of Urban Studies and Planning, Portland State University
Regional and environmental planning, community development

Carol Mayer-Reed, M.A., landscape architecture; B.A., fine arts
Partner-in-Charge, Landscape Architecture, Mayer/Reed
Urban/environmental design, visual communications, waterfronts, transportation, parks

Jeff Joslin, M.A., architecture; M.S., urban design
Land Use Manager: Urban Design, Design Review, Landmark Review, City of Portland
Sustainable development, green design, architecture, city planning

Robin McArthur, M.A., regional planning
Director, Planning & Development, METRO regional government
Growth management, land use, transportation, city/neighborhood planning

...and other special guests working in this field.

For panelist bios: www.reed.edu/career/calendar
Refreshments will be served.

Sponsored by: Career Services