

Politics and Campaigns

Becoming a political professional

Wednesday
December 2, 2009
6–7:30 p.m.
Eliot 314

Explore job opportunities as a

- volunteer
- intern
- staffer
- consultant
- public servant

Why are so many Reedies attracted to public service and politics? Ask the experts!

Mark Wiener '78, theatre
Principal, Winning Mark LLC: Political Consultants
Campaign strategy, media and technology, issue advocacy, ballot initiatives, funding for public services

Caitlin Baggott '99, American studies
Director, PolitiCorps (a program of the Bus Project)
Leadership training, policy advocacy, community mobilization

Karol Collymore, political science, University of New Mexico
Communication and Projects Manager,
Multnomah County Commissioner Jeff Cogen
Communications strategy, event planning, logistics, fundraising

Derek Bradley '06, political science
Legislative Assistant, Oregon State Representative Greg Matthews
Constituent services, campaign organization, field management

...and other guest alumni in politics and public service.

For panelist bios, go to www.reed.edu/career/calendar.
Refreshments will be served.

Sponsored by: Career Services in collaboration with the Public Policy Lecture Series