

MAJOR PLANNER: GENERAL LITERATURE

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

INSTRUCTIONS

~~~~~

To be considered for admission into the general literature major, one must submit a written statement to the committee no later than the end of the first semester of the junior year. This should include an outline of the proposed plan of study, a specific list of relevant courses, and a rationale designed to persuade the committee that the program makes sense in terms of coherent intellectual objectives, and that these objectives could not be attained in one of the existing programs in the Division.

A. REQUIREMENTS:

At least six units of literature courses at the 300- or 400-level, of which four shall be within the student's area of special interest.
