

Returning House Advisor Application 2012-2013

Please attach this sheet to your application materials

House Advisors hoping to return for the 2012-2013 academic year must reapply for the position. The reapplication process includes a structured conversation with your current Resident Director, cover letter, placement form and presentation of your experience as an HA followed by a series of questions. All reapplication materials are due to the office of Residence Life no later than January 31, 2012 at noon.

Name _____

Please check the appropriate box(es) for the position(s) you are applying for:

- Residence Hall HA
- Apartment HA (for the academic year)
- Language House HA (please complete separate Language House HA application)
- Summer 2012 Apartment HA

Conversation with Your RD

All HAs applying to return for the 2012-13 will meet individually with your current Resident Director to discuss your interest in returning, areas of strengths and challenges, and placement preferences. Please speak with your current RD and arrange a time to meet to have this conversation. These conversations must take place no later than January 31, 2012.

HA Cover Letter

Please submit a professional cover letter that highlights the topics you will cover in your interview presentation. The letter should not exceed one page in length.

Placement Form

Please submit the separate placement form of your placement preference. Include a brief description of the different area group dynamics that you want to work with (i.e. "I want to work with freshmen in a close community environment; therefore I am most excited about living in the Cross Canyon area group").

Presentation

The reapplication process includes a presentation of your experience as an HA followed by a series of questions from two professional staff members. Guidelines for this presentation can be found on a separate document on the HA Selection website.
